Happy birthday Orangeburgh Researchers List! Congratulations, and keep up the good work.

I am in the process of changing Internet providers. Please change my e-mail address in your records from dedge@wln.com to:
dedge@tssnet1.tss.net

The Orangeburgh names I am researching are:

RUMPH, HARRISPERGER, DATTWYLER, FRICHMAN.

My Mary Elvira RUMPH ma. into the JONES family in 1817. I have a pretty good line on the JONES people, but I have only limited info. on Mary Elvira's ancestors who had all of the above surnames. Essentially all of my info. on these names came from "The Wannamaker, Salley, Mackay, and Bellinger Families' Genealogies and Memoirs" from which I have copies of selected pages. Can anyone help me with additional details, e.g. place(s) dates and of origin in STZ of ancestors of Jacob RUMPH, Ann DATTWYLER, John HARRISPERGER and Elizabeth FRICHMAN, and/or siblings of Anne Mary HARRISPERBER?

Any information would be greatly appreciated. -- Dexter

I recently received a msg. from Gene Jeffries re. the Orangeburg Group. He suggested that I query you by e-mail for the names I am researching in the Orangeburg area. I think the easiest way to do this is to send my Ahnentafel chart starting with my g-grandmother, Mary Elvira RUMPH who ma. Donald Bruce JONES.

AHNENTAFEL CHART

30 OCT 1995

1

1 Mary Elvira (Polly) Rumph, b. 1795 in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC, d.

Jun 1854 in Dooly Co, GA, ma. 10 Jul 1817.

2 Jacob Rumph, b. 9 Jul 1752 in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC, d. 12 Dec

1812.

3 Anne Mary (Annie) Harrisperger, b. 1756 in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC,

d. 30 Sep 1835.

4 Jacob Rumph, b. in Stz, d. 1785 in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC, ma. 19

May 1748 in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC.

5 Ann (Datwyler) Dattwyler.

6 John (Jacob?) Harrisperger, b. 1668 in Stz, d. in Orangeburg, Orangeburg, SC.

7 Elizabeth Frichman.

I believe I have a pretty good fix on the siblings of Mary Elvira RUMPH, and Donald Bruce JONES, as well as the younger Jacob RUMPH. However, I have nothing on siblings of Anne Mary HARRISPERGER, Jacob RUMPH Sr., Ann DATTWYLER, John HARRISPERGER or Elizabeth FRICHMAN, nor do I have anything on ancestors of the 3rd generation (Nos. 4-7 above.) I would greatly appreciate any information you might be able to send me on these lines. -- Dexter

(S) place, because I have dug up some pieces of old brick not like the ones that we have here. And I also found a stone with some markings on it, so I went up with him and I looked at the stone and took it home with me. And it is there some place yet. And when I come over I will find it, and show same to you. I was seeing to get permission from the owner of the Schmidt place to set it in concrete right where it was found. The Markings on the stone is thus.

COLONIEE FRANCOISES

Pe Le Moyne

Sr De Irbvl

The stone is about 8 to 10 inches, nearly square, about two inches thick, rough, looks like marble.

Now when I come home if you won't mind, we will go over the place where Mr. Rupp dug up these old relics and see if we can find some of the old tile as I can go very close to the spot, that is, if the old oak is still there on the bluff, as its now 20 years since I have been there. Things may have changed a bit.

I am very respectfully yours,

F.A. Schrieber,
Madisonville, Louisiana

Rupp's Rule

Robert W. Rupp was elected Marshal of Ocean Springs, in 1920. His salary ranged from $90.00 per month in 1921 to $102 per month in 1929. In January 1929, Marshal Rupp's bond was set at $16,500, which was 25% of the tax collection from the former year. (The Jackson County Times, May 14, 1921, p. 5 and TOS, Ms. Minute Book (11-1-1929 to 11-6-1934), p. 1 and p. 28)

Occasionally, the local journal was the forum for Marshal Rupp to get his message to the community. In June 1920, he admonished motorcar operators to observe and obey the laws of the town in regards to vehicular speed. Rupp specifically sighted negligent driving as being too commonplace. He threatened financial loss by having the Mayor issue fines, particularly for speeding. (The Jackson County Times, June 5, 1920, p. 5)
